ICBA Congratulates Wayne Bank and Trust Co. for 30 Years of Membership

Washington, D.C. (September 01, 2009)—The Independent Community Bankers of America (ICBA) congratulates Wayne Bank and Trust Co. in Cambridge City, IN for reaching a milestone as an ICBA member. This marks the bank’s 30 years as a member of ICBA, the only national organization dedicated exclusively to serving the needs of the nation’s community banks.

“ICBA has been fortunate to have Wayne Bank and Trust Co. as a member of the association for 30 years,” said Camden R. Fine, ICBA president and CEO. “Community banks such as Wayne Bank and Trust Co. are passionately committed to serving their customers and their communities by providing resources and offering quality financial products and services, even during these challenging economic times. Community banks truly are the lifeblood that drives America’s communities.”

Community banks are an integral part of the economic, financial and civic fabric of thousands of towns and cities across America. Community banks continue to work hard every day to improve the quality of life in their communities because they are part of their communities—a quality unique to community banks.

“As an ICBA member, Wayne Bank and Trust Co. is proud to be part of a nationwide network of community banks that advocate on behalf of community banks and their customers,” said Mr. Alonzo H. Boyd, Jr., Chairman of Wayne Bank and Trust Co. “Wayne Bank and Trust Co. looks forward to continuing its role with ICBA to help strengthen and preserve the franchise value of community banks across the country.”

ICBA-member community banks employ nearly 300,000 people in more than 20,000 locations in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and two U.S. territories. Of the more than 8,000 community banks in America, nearly 5,000 are ICBA members.
